

Q.1) Fill in the blanks with suitable prepositions.

One night I was very upset. I decided to go _____ a walk. I walked _____ the lake for a long time. When I looked _____ my watch I realized I had been walking for two hours. As I was _____ my way back home, without realizing I started walking _____ Sameer's house. When I reached Sameer's room, I switched _____ the light. I saw Sameer sitting _____ his bed. _____ seeing me, he raised his head. He looked very sick. I stood _____ his bed and he grabbed me _____ both arms. I could see tears _____ his eyes.

Q.2) Given below is a passage. There is a preposition missing in each line where a (/) slash has been marked. Write the missing preposition in the space provided.

Kalu looked / the scene. He was _____ fascinated / the beautiful hills. The _____ valley / two hills was green and _____ lively. The birds / the trees sang _____ sweet songs and the flowers / the _____ valley swayed / the breeze. The hut _____
/ the river looked peaceful, far from _____ the noise / the city. _____

Q.1) Fill in the blanks with suitable prepositions.

One night I was very upset. I decided to go _____ a walk. I walked _____ the lake for a long time. When I looked _____ my watch I realized I had been walking for two hours. As I was _____ my way back home, without realizing I started walking _____ Sameer's house. When I reached Sameer's room, I switched _____ the light. I saw Sameer sitting _____ his bed. _____ seeing me, he raised his head. He looked very sick. I stood _____ his bed and he grabbed me _____ both arms. I could see tears _____ his eyes.

Q.2) Given below is a passage. There is a preposition missing in each line where a (/) slash has been marked. Write the missing preposition in the space provided.

Kalu looked / the scene. He was _____ fascinated / the beautiful hills. The _____ valley / two hills was green and _____
lively. The birds / the trees sang _____ sweet songs and the flowers / the _____ valley swayed / the breeze. The hut _____
/ the river looked peaceful, far from _____ the noise / the city. _____